22nd Annual
Concerts in the Park
Gengler Park, 5:30 to 7:30 pm

presented by

Ascension
St. Joseph
Hospital

The popular Ascension St. Joseph Hospital summertime Concerts in the Park series returns for the 22nd consecutive year. It promises to be another outstanding season! Mark your calendars, grab a lawn chair or blanket, and join us for these popular local favorites:

July 10 • Musical Celebration of Diversity

Join us for an evening of musical diversity featuring: Kretshmir, a Jewish and Yiddish music ensemble; Ogham, an Irish folk music group; and the Greg Adams Trio, a jazz combo. Presented as part of the 2019 Sherman Park Arts Festival, produced by the local arts and music organization, RUACH.

July 24 • Eddie Butts Band

The Eddie Butts Band delights audiences at festivals, concerts, and night clubs throughout the Midwest, delivering an exciting blend of R&B, pop, jazz, and more. Eddie is well known as a premier vocalist, and when you combine his smoky baritone with the highly-praised musicianship and vocal talents of this polished and professional band, it is easy to see why the Eddie Butts Band is considered a must-see favorite.

August 7 • Christopher's Project

Crowd favorite Christopher's Project has opened for legendary acts such as The Temptations, The Supremes and Jennifer Holiday. Performing a variety of music including classics from Unforgettable to Celebration, their song list is vast and talent is endless. Christopher's Project never fails to bring crowds to their feet!

August 21 • Joe Richter Band

St. Joseph's very own Joe Richter will take the stage with his band for this special performance. Featuring in-demand covers and original music, Joe Richter sings from the heart, emotes his truth with sweet melodies and telegraphs no pretensions in his approach to the microphone. He loves the songcraft of his musical idol Billy Joel as well as Ryan Adams. Richter's early inspirations included Dave Matthews, John Mayer, Jack Johnson and, well, Elvis.
