It’s extremely important for our story to be told, and who better to tell our story than our own Black press. “Absolutely! (The) Black press historically told our story and they continue to tell our story. (The) Black press gets to the heart of our cultures and connect us with a broader audience.”

“Yeah, the Black press is the historical stakeholders for our community. They are a clarion call to rep- resent our people’s community! We’re in the time of the moment that speaks/represents us in a positive light because of the Black press! They entertain and inform, so need the Black press.”

“I understand why the Black press is blacked out today. Black women have a net worth range of $18,700 to $97,000. The median net worth of Black women is $33,000, and the median net worth of White women is $33,000, and same bracket whose net worth ranges from $3,400 to $7,500. Statistics hit Black women even harder.

According to Black Enterprise, single Black women ages 25 to 54 have a lower median net worth of $37,000, and White women have a higher median net worth of $97,000. For and accuracy news will always be up supported by some type of source available which will allow readers to fact-check for themselves.

For example news is supported by facts, are supported by studies or documented proof, or a source somehow or it yourselves,” said James Causey, a columnist with the Milwaukee Journal Sentinel. “It’s not just about being accurate in journalism, it has become a challenge to find accurate news and information in the digital era.

By Princess Byers—MCJ Intern

Advancements in technology gives everyone the ability to be their own publisher, or if you or someone else saw it yourselves,” held with some type of source available which can combat this problem as both journalists and consumers.

For example news is supported by facts, are supported by studies or documented proof, or a source somehow or it yourselves,” said James Causey, a columnist with the Milwaukee Journal Sentinel.

“Interestingly, the ability to be the “Journalist” is no longer a good thing since it allows anyone to tell tell people what they know, their own perspective, which is not always good, let alone balanced and unbiased.

Unfortunately, the ability to be the “Journalist” is no longer a good thing since it allows anyone to tell people what they know, their own perspective, which is not always good, let alone balanced and unbiased.

“Find accurate news and information in the digital era by Princess Byers—MCJ Intern

With continuous barriers facing journalism, it has become a challenge for people to know what news they hear, or watch — in traditional ways (radio, newspapers, television) and online — is real and accurate.

A lot of news has become opinion-based rather than fact-based as it should be. It’s becoming harder and harder to get fair, balanced, unbiased reporting to be informed, gain knowledge, and perhaps take some form of action. Advancements in technology gives everyone the ability to be their own publisher, or if you or someone else saw it yourselves,” said James Causey, a columnist with the Milwaukee Journal Sentinel.

For example news is supported by facts, are supported by studies or documented proof, or a source somehow or it yourselves,” said James Causey, a columnist with the Milwaukee Journal Sentinel.

“Interestingly, the ability to be the “Journalist” is no longer a good thing since it allows anyone to tell people what they know, their own perspective, which is not always good, let alone balanced and unbiased.

Unfortunately, the ability to be the “Journalist” is no longer a good thing since it allows anyone to tell people what they know, their own perspective, which is not always good, let alone balanced and unbiased.
Walk for fallen city workers Saturday, July 20
Peace for Change Alliance Inc. and six community-based and faith-based entities, city of Milwaukee departments and organizations representing Milwaukee Police, will hold a community walk to honor five fallen city workers Saturday, July 20.
Called the “City of Milwaukee Community Walk to Honor Fallen City Workers,” the event is a fund raiser for the families of four Milwaukee Police officers who lost their lives in the line of duty: Kou Her, Michael Michalski, Charles Irvine, Jr., Matthew Rittner; and one Department of Public Works worker: Bryan Rodriquez.
Organizers of the walk are asking for monetary donations of $20 or whatever you can afford. The other organizations supporting the walk are: Milwaukee Police Association Milwaukee Department of Public Works League of Martin War Memorial Center The Episcopal Diocese of Milwaukee Collars on the Corner Participants will assemble at the War Memorial building, 750 N. Lincoln Memorial Dr., downtown. Walk registration will start at 8 a.m., followed by a program at 9 a.m. The walk is scheduled to begin at 9:30 a.m. Individuals who want to participate in this worthy cause can also sign-up on line: www.pca-mke.com. For more information about the walk, call Tracey Dent of Peace for Change Alliance, Inc. at 414-502-7296.

Vehicle Loans
Fast Approvals
Great Rates
Good Credit. Bad Credit. No Credit. Apply Today!

414-273-3170 | brewercury.com | 1351 Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. Dr.
The Milwaukee Community Journal July 17, 2019 Page 3

The Vocal Prowess of Bettye LaVette to Headline Black Arts Fest Milwaukee!

LaVette’s performances draw high praise across the world and fest goers at Black Arts Fest mke will find out why!

Black Arts Fest mke is proud to announce that a woman who is referred to as more than a singer, but as an interpreter of the blues who is confident on the Johnson Controls World Stage.

Bettye LaVette, can transform any song, whether it originated from rock, country pop or blues and when she gets through with it, is pure R&B. The festival will be held on Saturday, August 3 from noon to midnight at Henry Maier Festival Park (Summerfest Grounds).

Black heritage and culture are celebrated throughout the day and into the evening; one aspect being music. Earlier in the year, the festival announced SWV (Sisters with Voices), a trio with epic voices, would entertain audiences as they perform their strong set of hits. The band will take the Miller Lite Oasis stage at 10:15pm.

The Johnson Controls World Stage, with Bettye LaVette at the stage at 9:30pm. A unique pick for the festival, her unyielding voice and any true blues enthusiast will more than appreciate her unblemished level of talent.

Among an elite group of artists who performed, in a duet, for president-elect Barack Obama on the steps of the Lincoln Memorial; recipient of the Blues Music Awards for Best Contemporary Female Blues Singer and Best Soul Female Blues Artist; and other awards and three Grammy nominations.

Advance Adult (ages 12 - 59) tickets can be purchased for just $9, a 30 percent savings off the gate price ($12). Tickets for Youth (ages 8 – 11) and Senior (60 and older) are available for $8. Children (0 – 7 years of age) and Military and Veterans with a photo ID and proof of service will be admitted free at the gate.

Tickets are only available for purchase online and are on sale now through August 3 at BlackArtsFesstmke.com. Visit BlackArtsFesstmke.com for vendor applications and future updates on festival programming.

A study of emergency care involving victims of severe brain trauma is to be performed in this area.

Medical College of Wisconsin and Froedtert Hospital is conducting a research study to learn if either of two strategies for monitoring and treating patients with severe traumatic brain injury in the intensive care unit (ICU) is more likely to help patients get better.

Both of these alternative strategies are used in standard care. It is unknown if one is more effective than the other.

Because head injury is a life threatening condition requiring immediate treatment, some patients will be enrolled without consent if a family member or representative cannot be readily available. Before the study begins, we will consult with the community. We welcome your feedback and questions. For more information or to decline participation in this study, please visit boosttrial.org or contact our study staff at (414) 805-6496.

Primary Investigator: Dr. Tom Auferheide, MD
Study Coordinator: Jacob Labinski

---

Encourage Yourself

Sometimes, self-motivation can be the hardest thing to have. Even I’ve found myself quick to motivate friends and family, but slack when it comes to motivating myself. It’s not necessarily because I don’t want to motivate myself.

Jill deepens along the lines of having a strong and positive mentality.

When it comes to teens, there are so many different factors that influence them to behave the way they do. So, how can you stay motivated as a teen in this hectic world? How can you keep yourself encouraged and productive into and throughout high school?

Encouragement is the key to motivation. The biggest thing you can do is engage in things that make you truly happy. Even at a young age, happiness and what it really means can be confusing. I have come to learn that self-motivation happens when you can be in a happy, mentally stable place. You are then able to speak words of encouragement to yourself and bring a positive light to whatever type of day or situation you’re having.

Another way teens can become more self-motivated is to seriously ask yourself where do you want to be in life? Even at a young age, you can think about your future and what you want to accomplish on many in the community. More seriously, it will take you to places you would have never imagined. Stay positive. Stay persistent and always encourage yourself.

Paishance Welch

Tweens, Teens and Young Adults

---

Julia Means

Appointed to the Board of Milwaukee’s Health Department

Mayor Tom Barrett appointed Julia Means, Registered Nurse, to the City of Milwaukee’s newly created Board of Health last month on June 27.

The 13-member commission will advise the Health Department on policy and advocacy for public health practices that improve health outcomes for all Milwaukee residents.

The citizen oversight board was created by legislation adopted by the Milwaukee Common Council and signed by the Mayor in February of 2019.

Julia Means, a Community Health Minn. Nurse with Ascension Columbia St. Mary’s Hospital, part of Ascension Wisconsin, touches countless lives every day through her faith-based work promoting around chronic disease management, food security, infant mortality in Milwaukee: premature births and unpreventable infant mortality.

Among an elite group of nurses that honors and encourages people that have faith in God. Ascension Wisconsin truly only allows me to do my work and not hide my faith,” said Means. “If you take care of God’s business, He’ll take care of your business.”

Means truly believes this is due to the courtesies examples of how God continues to work in her life and the lives of her participants.

“I see myself as the bridge between the community and the hospital. I’m an advocate for people in the community that feel they have no voice,” said Means.

“I believe it is almost always people approach her and tell her how she’s impacted their lives. Children run up to her and call her grandma. “I have a new granddaughter every day,” Means said.

---

Fest Milwaukee!

Join us as we celebrate African and American voices across the world through traditional and contemporary experiences such as R&B, Spoken Word, Gospel, Urban Line Dance, Blues, a tribute to one of Milwaukee’s finest and more—there’s something for everyone!

---

ADVERTORIAL

JULIA MEANS

Appointed to the Board of Milwaukee’s Health Department

Major Tom Barrett appointed Julia Means, Registered Nurse, to the City of Milwaukee’s newly created Board of Health last month on June 27.

The 13-member commission will advise the Health Department on policy and advocacy for public health practices that improve health outcomes for all Milwaukee residents.

Julia Means, a Community Health Minn. Nurse with Ascension Columbia St. Mary’s Hospital, part of Ascension Wisconsin, touches countless lives every day through her faith-based work promoting around chronic disease management, food security, infant mortality in Milwaukee: premature births and unpreventable infant mortality.

Among an elite group of nurses that honors and encourages people that have faith in God. Ascension Wisconsin truly only allows me to do my work and not hide my faith,” said Means. “If you take care of God’s business, He’ll take care of your business.”

Means truly believes this is due to the courtesies examples of how God continues to work in her life and the lives of her participants.

“I see myself as the bridge between the community and the hospital. I’m an advocate for people in the community that feel they have no voice,” said Means.

“I believe it is almost always people approach her and tell her how she’s impacted their lives. Children run up to her and call her grandma. “I have a new granddaughter every day,” Means said.

---

SWV (Sisters with Voices)

The band will take the Miller Lite Oasis stage at 9:30pm. A unique pick for the festival, her unyielding voice and any true blues enthusiast will more than appreciate her unblemished level of talent.

Among an elite group of artists who performed, in a duet, for president-elect Barack Obama on the steps of the Lincoln Memorial; recipient of the Blues Music Awards for Best Contemporary Female Blues Singer and Best Soul Female Blues Artist; and other awards and three Grammy nominations.

---

SWV

Bettee LaVette

---

DANCE DRUM DINE DISCOVER!

Join us as we celebrate African and American voices across the world through traditional and contemporary experiences such as R&B, Spoken Word, Gospel, Urban Line Dance, Blues, a tribute to one of Milwaukee’s finest and more—there’s something for everyone!

---

LaVette’s performances draw high praise across the world and fest goers at Black Arts Fest mke will find out why!

---

Visit BlackArtsFesstmke.com for vendor applications and future updates on festival programming.
RELIGION

CLASSIC HOT WHEELS AT ZION HILL

Zion Hill Missionary Baptist Church recently held an Antique Car Show in the church’s parking lot. Car enthusiasts brought their hot rods to oohed and ahheded over by residents and church members. There were cars of all makes and models on display. Zion Hill is located at 1825 W. Hampton Ave. Rev. Russell Williamson is the pastor. —Photos by Yvonne Kemp

---

Northwest to host donation awareness fundraiser July 27

Northwest Funeral Chapel will host a Donate Life organ donation awareness campaign fundraiser, Saturday, July 27, at the Northwest Event Center, 4634 W. Good Hope Rd. The fundraiser is an effort to raise organ donation awareness and persuade members of the community to become donors in order to increase the number of African American donors.

Currently, Black donor registration is at a dismal 25%, though African Americans utilize 60% of donated organs. The evening will start with VIP dining and networking from 4 to 6 p.m., followed by a concert, from 6 p.m. to 9 p.m., featuring the jazz and R&B/soul stylings of Christopher’s Project.

Also on hand will be Milwaukee Municipal Court Judge Derek Mosley and Darrin Reasby. Both men will talk about their respective organ donation journeys. Funds raised will help support Donate Life Wisconsin, National Kidney Foundation of Wisconsin, Versiti, Advocate Aurora Health, and the American Liver Foundation.

For sponsorship, ticket, exhibit and vendor opportunities, email: ALEGObudget2020@gmail.com.

Posley will discuss his five priorities for the district in 2020 that will create success. Those who are invited will have an opportunity to network with representatives of various organizations, policy makers, and civic activists.

---

Women’s organization to hold community symposium on future of state, city and county government; community conversation with MPS Superintendent

African American Ladies Empowering Growth Opportunities (A-LEG0) will present a free community symposium and listening session Saturday, July 27, at 9:30 a.m., at the Mother Kathryn Daniels Convention Center, 3500 Mother Daniels Way.

Attendees will hear from six state, city and county lawmakers their vision for 2020 and how they plan to make their respective budgets work for people of color.

The public will be encouraged to discuss, interact, advocate, and share their vision for change.

For more information, email: ALEGObudget2020@gmail.com.

Before the symposium, there will be a community conversation with MPS Superintendent Dr. Keith P. Posley, starting at 8 a.m. It is a special invitation only event.

Posley will discuss his five priorities for the district in 2020 that will create success. Those who are invited will have an opportunity to network with representatives of various organizations, policy makers, and civic activists.

There will also be recognition of emerging leaders and young achievers.

This conversation with the superintendent is being sponsored by The Inner City Sportsmen’s Club and Lead-ers for a Better Community.

---

Rummage sale at the Clinton and Bernice Rose Senior Center

The Clinton and Bernice Rose Senior Center will hold a Rummage-O-Rama sale Saturday, July 27, from 9 a.m. to 2 p.m. at the center, located at 3045 N. Martin Luther King Drive.

Car washes will also be provided for $5. Hot dogs with the works will be available for purchase. If you want to participate, the table rentals are $20. All proceeds you make are yours to keep.

For more information call 414-263-2255.

---

SALES REPRESENTATIVES

MCJ is seeking strong self starters to sell a viable niche market medium with over 42 years experience in the City of Milwaukee. Applicants must have their own auto, be knowledgeable of the city, and be capable of meeting sales goals, weekly. Experience preferred but will train. Ability to be bonded are criteria for consideration. Send resume to:

Milwaukee Community Journal, Inc.
3612 N. King Dr.
Milwaukee, WI 53212
...include references. Small base plus commission start.

Visit http://www.milwaukeecommunityjournal.com to learn more about us.
I've never been good at math, but even with my questionable skills, we could count many of our social ills if our earned (or government) dollars touched three Black hands before leaving our community.

Let me reiterate: keeping our dollars in our community will not only impact our economic well being but our cultural and spiritual well being as well. Translated into Blonics, if we spent our “Black” dollars with “Human” vendors instead of with suburban contractors, Asian suppliers of horsehair or over-priced groceries sold by Brown people (not Latins) who don’t identify with us, we would not only create thousands of jobs, but restore the nuclear family and promote Black self-sufficiency.

And, if that dollar touched four Black hands before paying for some rich person’s private schooling, we could probably end teen pregnancy, replace Uncle Sam with employed brothers and also fund a cure for ashy skin that doesn’t involve Vaseline.

You don’t have to be a behavioral scientist to surmise that we continue to manifest the traits of servitude. The shackles we once carried on Milwaukee’s shoulders still remain attached to our minds.

Standing on the Willie Lynch foundation, many of us continue to think anything Black/African American is inferior or tainted, and conversely anything White is pure and perfumed, sanctified, and holy.

This is a multifaceted problem, requiring a multifaceted solution, a recognition of dignity and economic forecasts. But first, we must understand the connection between our economic well being but our cultural and spiritual indolences as well.

Looking at what we are doing to self. We can stop the violence now. But, instead of turning to the suburbs, we sought out another African American who, incidentally, did an excellent job of convincing us to buy with those who don’t identify with us, we would not only create thousands of jobs, but restore the nuclear family and promote Black self-sufficiency.

But, instead of turning to the suburbs, we sought out another African American who, incidentally, did an excellent job of convincing us to buy with those who don’t identify with us, we would not only create thousands of jobs, but restore the nuclear family and promote Black self-sufficiency.

And, Nyame forbade someone to make a strong case for an independent political party. The Kwanzaa movement has been weakened, we have to reject the culture’s value system. It puts us in a position to have a strong voice of a different sort of patriotism.

We talk about community but don’t understand what the last five letters of the word spell.

That must be the template we should all use.

But, instead of turning to the suburbs, we sought out another African American who, incidentally, did an excellent job of convincing us to buy with those who don’t identify with us, we would not only create thousands of jobs, but restore the nuclear family and promote Black self-sufficiency.

But, instead of turning to the suburbs, we sought out another African American who, incidentally, did an excellent job of convincing us to buy with those who don’t identify with us, we would not only create thousands of jobs, but restore the nuclear family and promote Black self-sufficiency.

By Torre M Johnson/XMENUNITED LLC

Let me reiterate: keeping our dollars in our community will not only impact our economic well being but our cultural and spiritual well being as well. Translated into Blonics, if we spent our “Black” dollars with “Human” vendors instead of with suburban contractors, Asian suppliers of horsehair or over-priced groceries sold by Brown people (not Latins) who don’t identify with us, we would not only create thousands of jobs, but restore the nuclear family and promote Black self-sufficiency.

And, if that dollar touched four Black hands before paying for some rich person’s private schooling, we could probably end teen pregnancy, replace Uncle Sam with employed brothers and also fund a cure for ashy skin that doesn’t involve Vaseline.

You don’t have to be a behavioral scientist to surmise that we continue to manifest the traits of servitude. The shackles we once carried on Milwaukee’s shoulders still remain attached to our minds.

Standing on the Willie Lynch foundation, many of us continue to think anything Black/African American is inferior or tainted, and conversely anything White is pure and perfumed, sanctified, and holy.

This is a multifaceted problem, requiring a multifaceted solution, a recognition of dignity and economic forecasts. But first, we must understand the connection between our economic well being but our cultural and spiritual indolences as well.

Looking at what we are doing to self. We can stop the violence now. But, instead of turning to the suburbs, we sought out another African American who, incidentally, did an excellent job of convincing us to buy with those who don’t identify with us, we would not only create thousands of jobs, but restore the nuclear family and promote Black self-sufficiency.

And, Nyame forbade someone to make a strong case for an independent political party. The Kwanzaa movement has been weakened, we have to reject the culture’s value system. It puts us in a position to have a strong voice of a different sort of patriotism.

We talk about community but don’t understand what the last five letters of the word spell.

That must be the template we should all use.

But, instead of turning to the suburbs, we sought out another African American who, incidentally, did an excellent job of convincing us to buy with those who don’t identify with us, we would not only create thousands of jobs, but restore the nuclear family and promote Black self-sufficiency.

But, instead of turning to the suburbs, we sought out another African American who, incidentally, did an excellent job of convincing us to buy with those who don’t identify with us, we would not only create thousands of jobs, but restore the nuclear family and promote Black self-sufficiency.

By Torre M Johnson/XMENUNITED LLC

Let me reiterate: keeping our dollars in our community will not only impact our economic well being but our cultural and spiritual well being as well. Translated into Blonics, if we spent our “Black” dollars with “Human” vendors instead of with suburban contractors, Asian suppliers of horsehair or over-priced groceries sold by Brown people (not Latins) who don’t identify with us, we would not only create thousands of jobs, but restore the nuclear family and promote Black self-sufficiency.

And, if that dollar touched four Black hands before paying for some rich person’s private schooling, we could probably end teen pregnancy, replace Uncle Sam with employed brothers and also fund a cure for ashy skin that doesn’t involve Vaseline.

You don’t have to be a behavioral scientist to surmise that we continue to manifest the traits of servitude. The shackles we once carried on Milwaukee’s shoulders still remain attached to our minds.

Standing on the Willie Lynch foundation, many of us continue to think anything Black/African American is inferior or tainted, and conversely anything White is pure and perfumed, sanctified, and holy.

This is a multifaceted problem, requiring a multifaceted solution, a recognition of dignity and economic forecasts. But first, we must understand the connection between our economic well being but our cultural and spiritual indolences as well.

Looking at what we are doing to self. We can stop the violence now. But, instead of turning to the suburbs, we sought out another African American who, incidentally, did an excellent job of convincing us to buy with those who don’t identify with us, we would not only create thousands of jobs, but restore the nuclear family and promote Black self-sufficiency.

And, Nyame forbade someone to make a strong case for an independent political party. The Kwanzaa movement has been weakened, we have to reject the culture’s value system. It puts us in a position to have a strong voice of a different sort of patriotism.

We talk about community but don’t understand what the last five letters of the word spell.

That must be the template we should all use.

But, instead of turning to the suburbs, we sought out another African American who, incidentally, did an excellent job of convincing us to buy with those who don’t identify with us, we would not only create thousands of jobs, but restore the nuclear family and promote Black self-sufficiency.

But, instead of turning to the suburbs, we sought out another African American who, incidentally, did an excellent job of convincing us to buy with those who don’t identify with us, we would not only create thousands of jobs, but restore the nuclear family and promote Black self-sufficiency.
Pantaleo and all of the officers involved in Eric's captured on video, in plain view, and yet somehow who swore an oath to protect and serve. It was all world watched as my son's life was taken by those Mother of Eric Garner writes powerful essay in Detroit. States from Palestine. She was born Rican and born in the Bronx. Tlaib's Chicago. Ocasio-Cortez is Puerto born in Cincinnati and raised in Omar is the only one who was born outside of the United States, in So- (continued from front page)

"We are more than four people..."We ran on a mandate to advocate for those ignored, left out, and left behind. Our squad is big. Our squad includes any person committed to building a more equitable and just world." —Cong. PRESSLEY wal journal. Senator Pelosi, a long-time professor of journalism and communications at Mar- quette University said, "There had never been so much information available, but we have had a breakdown in the way we talk about news and the way we think about the role of the media."

Finding accurate news and information in the digital era (continued from front page)

"Professionals are traditionally for media unbiased experts on something, but they have been turned into attack dogs to help defend the president. And there is an issue of the government or an industry interested in political power is still determining who gets access to the news in the first place."

"If you want a full picture of what is going on in the world around you read news, and you have to understand why things happen, there is nothing wrong with asking the question who wrote the story and asking why certain facts were left out or asking why things weren't covered in the way you believe they should have been covered." Journalists must be held accountable for what they report. As a consumer of news, you have every right to confront a journalist when there is inaccurate information in a story you see or read. You are more than welcome to challenge him or her (the journalist) on it. A good journalist is going to investigate your "You can tell a story yourself; social media is a platform. It's a platform for a lot of people to use and everyone may not be a journalist, but you can tell a story in your own way shape or form. It's a platform for people to use and everyone may not be a journalist, but you can tell a story in your own way shape or form. It's a platform for people to use and everyone may not be a journalist, but you can tell a story in your own way shape or form. And if you see stories that don't fit..." Pelosi added. "It is a test of your ability to think critically and analyze the story "You can tell a story yourself; social media is a platform. It's a platform for a lot of people to use and everyone may not be a journalist, but you can tell a story in your own way shape or form. And if you see stories that don't fit..." Pelosi added. "It is a test of your ability to think critically and analyze the story. Big stories come with multiple sources," said Causey."Publisher's statement The Milwaukee Community Journal is committed to publishing articles from a variety of perspectives and voices. We encourage the sharing of information in the digital era..."
6.99 lb
WITH CARD
Black Angus Boneless New York Strip Steaks
Value Pack or Fresh Atlantic Salmon Fillets, Farm Raised

1.88 lb
Fresh Perdue Boneless Chicken Breasts
No Antibiotics Ever

2.49
18 oz Blueberries
WITH CARD

1.79
Boneless Half Pork Loin
Ball in the Bag

2/$7
Patrick Cudahy Ground Beef, 14-16 oz

1.79
Roundy's Low Fat Milk Select Varieties, Gallon Excludes Whiten and Chocolate Milk, Limit 4

2.77 lb
Chee-tos
WITH CARD

2.99 lb
Kurt Natural or Taco Bell Shredded Cheese Select Varieties, 7 oz

5.99
Pepsi or 7UP
Select Varieties, 12-Fl oz Cans, Limit 4

1.67
Pork Rib Back Ribs

2.99 lb
Kroger Deluxe Ice Cream Select Varieties, Half Gallon

10/$10
10/20
LEON CAFE Entree

1.88
WITH CARD
M&M's Party Size Candy Select Varieties, 10/20 oz

4.99
WITH CARD
4 X MORE POINTS on Gift Cards

2.99 lb
WITH CARD
Nabisco Oreo Cookies Select Varieties, 12-16 oz

5/$5
WITH CARD
Jack's Pizza

5/$5
WITH CARD
Pawers or Powerade Zero
Select Varieties, 20 Fl oz

Jack's Pizza or Powerade Select Varieties, 20 Fl oz