Destiny's Child Member and Author MICHELLE WILLIAMS to Open Milwaukee Film's Cultures & Communities Festival

Destiny's Child member, actress, entrepreneur, and author Michelle Williams will open Milwaukee Film's upcoming Cultures & Communities Festival (C&C Fest), presented by the Froedtert & the Medical College of Wisconsin regional health network, with "Getting Real about Depression," a candid conversation about mental and emotional health, on Wednesday, Sept. 8, at 6:30 p.m. at the local Wilson Theater, the nonprofit announced on Monday.

An advocate for mental health and female empowerment, Williams' recently published memoir "Checking In: How Getting Real about Depression Saved My Life---and Can Save Yours" sheds an uplifting light and offers a behind the scenes look at her journey with depression, along with the importance of faith, family, friends, and prioritizing mental health.

From Midwestern girl to touring across the globe with one of the biggest musical groups of all time, to coping with bouts of depression,

Williams brings with her a passion for helping others live their best lives while providing people with key tips and lessons to put them on their own path towards personal and professional success.

C&C Fest (Sept. 6-12), formerly the Minority Health Film Festival, is a hybrid event focused on promoting individual and communal wellness that will feature 40+ films, workshops, panels, and Q&As both in-person at event venues around the city and on Milwaukee Film's virtual platform.

Entering its third year with Froedtert & the Medical College of Wisconsin health network, this one-of-a-kind Festival is guided by principles of cultural equity, ensuring representation in festival programming and outreach for communities that have been historically underrepresented based on race/ethnicity, age, disability, sexual orientation, gender and gender identity, socioeconomic status, and citizenship status.

Opening night with Michelle Williams "Getting Real about Depression" brought to you by CUNA Mutual Group and Rogers Behavioral Health will commence on Wednesday, Sept. 8, at 6:30 p.m. at the Marcus Center for the Performing Arts: Wilson Theater at Vogel Hall with a VIP book signing and reception to follow at 8 p.m. at Saint Kate - The Arts Hotel.

Tickets are available online to purchase for Milwaukee Film members beginning today, Monday, Aug. 2. ($25 event only, $90 event, and VIP reception with free book for signing).

Milwaukee County's Public Health Officers Recommend Universal Masking in Schools

As Delta variant cases surge, data shows fourteen-fold increase in cases among children

As school boards meet and prepare for the 2021-22 school year, local health department officials in Milwaukee County unanimously recommend the implementation of universal masking requirements for teachers, staff, students and visitors in K-12 schools, regardless of vaccination status.

This recommendation is in alignment with guidance from the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC), the American Academy of Pediatrics (AAP), and most recently the Wisconsin Department of Health Services (DHS).

Since the beginning of July, Milwaukee County has seen a 14-fold increase in COVID-19 cases among children under 18 years old. Because of this, local public health officials urge school boards to consider these facts and vote in alignment with the national and statewide back-to-school universal masking guidance to keep children safe and healthy.

The Delta variant is highly transmissible and adding another layer of protection on top of vaccination is needed to stop the spread.

Given new evidence on the Delta variant, on July 9, the AAP updated its school guidance, recommending universal indoor masking and a layered approach to COVID-19 prevention strategies.

This includes physical distancing, enhanced ventilation and hand washing heading into the fall.

On July 27, following suit with the AAP, the CDC updated its guidance, recommending universal masking in schools.

A significant portion of the student population is not eligible to receive the vaccine, and masking is a proven tool in mitigating the spread of the COVID-19 virus.

On August 4, the Wisconsin Department of Health Services (DHS) released its updated COVID-19 K-12 school outbreak guidance. This information comes at a critical time when Wisconsin is experiencing a steady increase in COVID-19 cases.

The CDC now classifies Milwaukee County as having a high level of community transmission.
