CHRISTMAS COMES EARLY TO BLACK MKE!

MHSI hosts Holiday Dinner Giveaway and COVID Vaccination Clinic!

Milwaukee Health Services, Inc. held its annual Holiday Dinner Giveaway recently at the Isaac Coggs Heritage Health Center, 8200 W. Silver Spring Drive. At the same time, MHSI also hosted a community-based 'Conquer COVID-19' vaccination clinic for anyone five-years-of-age or older. Participants received COVID-19 safety kits and $25 gift cards. Anthem Blue Cross Blue Shield was among nine health and charitable organizations that participated in the event. Former Green Bay Packer great LeRoy Butler was a special guest at the giveaway.

'The Butler Strikes Again' at Holy Redeemer Event!

Butler was also a special guest at Holy Redeemer Institutional COGIC during its "Christmas on Mother Daniels Way" event. Blue Cross Blue Shield was a co-sponsor of the church event where children received Christmas gifts and families received holiday food packages. The first 100 adults who got COVID-19 vaccinations received a $50 gift card. Though he's not yet an adult, Owen Williams wasn't going to get a COVID shot. But when the former Packer great offered an autographed football if he got the vaccine, he had a change of mind. The young man received his shot (shown above at left) along with the autographed football. Owens is shown at right with his father, with his father Williams, Sr. and Butler.

Bethel Tabernacle helps families 'level-up' for the holidays!

Another Anthem sponsored event was held at Bethel Tabernacle Worship Center, which held a 'Leveling Up on Your Health Community Resource' event recently at the church, located at 5419 W. Hampton Ave. Flu shots and COVID vaccinations were available for adults and their children. The first 50 people who got a shot received a gift card while supplies lasted. —All Photos by Yvonne Kemp

City of Milwaukee COVID-19 Update

"It is crucial for every eligible individual to get their COVID vaccine and booster dose. With the presence of the Omicron variant in the community and the cold weather keeping everyone indoors, the vaccine is the strongest tool to protect ourselves from this virus."

The most recent disease burden in the City of Milwaukee is 318.6 new positive COVID-19 cases per 100,000 people over seven days and remains in the "extreme transmission" category.

This is a slight decrease over last week. The percentage of positive COVID-19 tests remained at 10.5% and in the "high transmission" category.

Currently, 60.5% of city of Milwaukee adults 16 years and older are fully vaccinated and 65.5% have received at least their first dose.

Additionally, 27.7% of fully vaccinated individuals have received a booster dose. 5.5% of children ages 5 to 11 have completed their pediatric COVID-19 vaccine series and 11.1% have received at least one dose.

It is crucial for every eligible individual to get their COVID vaccine and booster dose. With the presence of the Omicron variant in the community and the cold weather keeping everyone indoors, the vaccine is the strongest tool to protect ourselves from this virus.

Everyone 5 years of age and older is eligible to receive a COVID-19 vaccine, and everyone 16 years of age and older is eligible to receive a booster dose.

Booster doses are available for fully vaccinated individuals at least six months after their second dose of the mRNA Pfizer or Moderna vaccine or two months after their single dose of the Johnson & Johnson vaccine.

Individuals 16 and 17 years old are currently only approved to receive the Pfizer COVID-19 booster.

With the holiday season quickly approaching, many people are planning to gather with loved ones to celebrate.

The Milwaukee Health Department urges those who are gathering to do so safely.

This means gathering with only fully vaccinated friends and family, wearing a mask when gathering in public, indoor spaces, and staying home if you experience any COVID-19 symptoms or come in contact with anyone who is confirmed positive for COVID-19.

"We were all hopeful for a holiday season that felt more normal, but unfortunately COVID-19 is still very present in our community" said Milwaukee Health Commissioner Kirsten Johnson.

"While the vaccine provides an effective level of protection against this virus, we still must be diligent with the other proven safety mitigations.

"We want everyone to be able to celebrate this season and many more holiday seasons to come."

The Milwaukee Health Department COVID-19 testing and vaccination sites will be observing upcoming holiday hours.

Anyone in need of a PCR test or vaccine is encouraged to plan ahead.

The Northwest Health Center, Southside Health Center, and Menomonee Valley Site will be closed Friday, December 24 through Sunday, December 26 and Friday, December 31 through Sunday, January 2.

Individuals who need COVID-19 services during that time are encouraged to visit HealthyMKE.com to find alternative locations.

The Milwaukee Health Department is currently working to develop a three-to-five year strategic plan to advance the health of Milwaukee through an anti-racist framework and is seeking input from the Milwaukee community.

Incoming Mayor CAVALIER JOHNSON releases plan to combat RECKLESS DRIVING!

Incoming Mayor Cavalier Johnson recently unveiled a detailed plan to abate reckless driving in Milwaukee.

The plan, is called 'S.T.A.N.D.', which stands for:

- Safe street design
- Traffic enforcement
- Accountability
- Neighborhood Engagement
- Demand progress

This plan commits to engaging a broad coalition of residents, businesses, advocates, and stakeholders to address reckless driving.

"The plan we are launching, S.T.A.N.D. for Safer Streets, is a multifaceted approach that will immediately address the reckless driving crisis we face in our city," Johnson said during a news conference with representatives of various city departments and community based organizations that will assist with the initiative.

The plan calls for, among other things: Increasing the deployment of physical road improvements; stepped-up enforcement by the Milwaukee Police Department; a new policy for towing unregistered or unlicensed vehicle operators who are caught driving at dangerous speeds; and a dedicated staff member in the Mayor's office to coordinate the Vision Zero plan across city departments and work with residents and businesses.

"As Mayor, I plan to put the full weight of my administration behind meaningful action to combat reckless driving every day," Johnson said.

"As a parent of three children in Milwaukee, and someone who drives these streets daily, I find the statistics around automobile accidents and vehicle thefts unacceptable," said Johnson.

In 2021, 65 people in Milwaukee have lost their lives due to reckless driving accidents, and more than 9,000 cars have been stolen, double the amount in 2020.

Biden-Harris Administration Extends Student Loan Pause Through May 2022

The U.S. Department of Education announced recently a 90-day extension of the pause on student loan repayment, interest, and collections through May 1, 2022.

The extension will allow the Administration to assess the impacts of the Omicron variant on student borrowers and provide additional time for borrowers to plan for the resumption of payments and reduce the risk of delinquency and defaults after restart.

The Department will continue its work to transition borrowers smoothly back into repayment, including by improving student loan servicing.

"Since Day One of this Administration, the Department has focused on supporting students and borrowers throughout the pandemic and ensuring they have the resources they need to return to repayment successfully," said U.S. Secretary of Education Miguel Cardona.

"This additional extension of the repayment pause will provide critical relief to borrowers who continue to face financial hardships as a result of the pandemic, and will allow our Administration to assess the impacts of Omicron on student borrowers.

As we prepare for the return to repayment in May, we will continue to provide tools and supports to borrowers so they can enter into the repayment plan that is responsive to their financial situation, such as an income-driven repayment plan.

"Students and borrowers will always be at the center of our work at the Department, and we are committed to not only ensuring a smooth return to repayment, but also increasing accountability and stronger customer service from our loan servicers as borrowers prepare for repayment."

The pause on student loan payments will help 41 million borrowers save $5 billion per month. Borrowers are encouraged to use the additional time to ensure their contact information is up to date and to consider enrolling in electronic debit and income-driven repayment plans to support a smooth transition to repayment. More information can be found at StudentAid.gov.

The administration's action is one of a series of steps the Biden-Harris Administration has taken to support students and borrowers, make higher education more affordable, and improve student loan servicing, including providing nearly $13 billion in targeted loan relief to over 640,000 borrowers. Actions within that include:

Revamping the Public Service Loan Forgiveness program in October, which has already provided $2.4 billion in loan relief to 38,000 borrowers.

As part of that effort, the Department implemented a Limited PSLF Waiver to count all prior payments made by student borrowers toward PSLF, regardless of the loan program.

Borrowers who are working in public service but have not yet applied for PSLF should do so before October 31, 2022, and can find out more at StudentAid.gov/PSLF.

Providing $7.0 billion in relief for 401,000 borrowers who have a total and permanent disability.

Approving $1.5 billion in borrower defense claims, including extending full relief to approved claims and approving new types of claims.

Providing $1.26 billion in closed school discharges to 107,000 borrowers who attended the now-defunct ITT Technical Institute.

Helping 30,000 small business owners with student loans seeking help from the Paycheck Protection Program.

PERSPECTIVES

Is the time coming when parents pay for the sins of their off-spring?

Imagine the tribal impact if 18% of Milwaukee's Black mothers were jailed for the sins of their offspring.

That's a crude 'guess-ta-ment' of the percentage of local African American 'mothers' who would be incarcerated if a Michigan law used to indict the parents of a 15-year-old mass murderer last month was enacted in Wisconsin.

The parents of Ethan Crumbley were charged for failing to intervene in their teenager's indiscriminate shooting at Oxford High school, located in a suburb of Detroit.

Four students were killed and several others wounded when 'Evil Ethan' opened fire in a school hallway.

The indictment states the parents had strong reason to believe Ethan was indeed evil and was about to carry out his insane and "egregious acts of mayhem."

Under Michigan law, the parents can be charged with involuntary manslaughter if they contribute to a crime.

While it is rare for parents to be charged in Michigan or anywhere else in the country as accessories to a crime committed by their off-spring, it is not implausible or without precedence.

In fact, Vice President Kamala Harris was lambasted by Black parents in California when she punished the parents of truant students as that state's attorney general.

And while Wisconsin does not have a similar law, there is a growing clamor to try unprecedented---if not unrealistic--- mechanisms to 'arrest' Milwaukee's epidemic of Black teen violence.

Indeed, depending on what happens in Michigan, I would be shocked if a conservative seed isn't planted on the shores of Lake Michigan.

And don't assume there isn't enough 'fertilizer' to nurture it. There is plenty of 'elephant dung' in Madison to ensure a healthy plant---weed (but not the kind you smoke).

Of course, the state's contingency of Racist Republican Roaches could not hope to pass such a bill without minimal Black support.

Which, if you've listened to Black radio, read the pages of the Black Press, and social media recently, is becoming louder in the Black community as more and more people of color are sounding increasingly conservative. Or, at least at wit's end and taken aback by a series of sensationalistic murders, rapes, and unprecedented car-jackings.

And if you think it's implausible that some African American politicians wouldn't jump on the Racist Republican Roach-wagon, remember Black Congressional Representatives were falling all over themselves in support of former President Bill Clinton's racist criminal justice omnibus bill in 1994.

They were under a similar illusion that mass incarceration would deter the drug epidemic and its related epidemic of violence.

Also, consider that timorous suburbanites (of different hues) are arming themselves in record numbers in anticipation of the 'Milwaukee Mau Mau' invading their turf.

Even while 90-plus percent of murders are confined to the central city, our teen terrorists are becoming bolder. They have ventured outside the plantation boundaries to steal the abundance of late-model cars there.

In fact, two sensationalistic assaults committed by teen 'Neckbones' have literally put the suburbanites on alert status.

The murder of a Nigerian sister, Sunita Balogun, who was savagely run over by her own car in Wauwatosa by a 13-year-old last month, and the rape of an 87-year-old White woman in Waukesha have made national headlines.

As of this writing, Milwaukee is on pace for a new homicide record. There were 191 homicides through Tuesday, with 89% African American victims. It is assumed a significant percentage were killed by juveniles. However, that's an assumption since police have been unable to solve 70% of the homicides.

Interestingly, 76% of the local murder victims were under 39-year-old. That shouldn't be too surprising since murder/homicide is the number one cause of death among Black American men.

I can understand the growing frustration of tribal members. This is not what I've dedicated my life's work too, either. But as I frequently posit, while the White community explodes, the Black community implodes.

Ninety percent of the Black murder victims were killed by a firearm, from 9mm semi-automatics to bazookas. I don't know where they get those weapons from, but it is easier to find a gun in the central city than a Black history book.

Hmm, could that be a contributing factor?

Interestingly, six percent of Milwaukee murder victims were killed by some 'other' means, other than stabbings or beatings.

I can only assume 'other' includes being talked to death by politicians trying to convince us the party that started the Confederacy and the Klan has now seen the light. It is gonna' save us from ourselves and systemic racism.

No doubt they figure if they appear at press conferences in blackface wearing Kente, we will assume they have our best interests at heart.

And since we elect our politicians based on their ability to articulate the problem---but not to provide solutions to them---I fear that by fall 2022, I may be talked to death as well.

Homicides---genocide---take the headlines, but right behind it is car-jacking.

Milwaukee is currently on pace to record 10,000 stolen cars, a significant percentage of which are stolen by Black 'orphans,' who are so bold as to organize into gangs named after their targeted cars---Kia Gang---and post their accomplishments on social media.

The teen terrorists are emboldened by the reality that if caught, they will be given a slap on the wrist and returned to their basements, where they will plan their subsequent 'nonviolent' offense.

Record car-jackings have 'necessitated' auto insurance companies to raise their rates in central city zip codes for residents whose only liability is living in the wrong areas. The suburbs will be next.

It has also resulted in increased police patrols and criminal justice costs. Everybody and their mama's sister now have an expensive home and auto security system, steering wheel locks, and bars on their windows, turning Milwaukee into the East St. Louis of the great lakes.

QUOTE OF THE WEEK

“Just don’t give up what you’re trying to do. Where there is love and inspiration, I don’t think you can go wrong.”—Ella Fitzgerald

And let's not forget the gasoline used by journalists who must continuously travel to city hall to attend press conferences called by politicians who will lament how 'concerned' they are about the rising crime.

I even heard florists have raised the price of flowers purchased by families to commemorate the sites where their loved ones were killed. (Generally, funeral costs are not shouldered by parents since few have insurance and instead rely on Go Fund Me accounts.)

If you haven't figured it out, I came up with the 18% incarceration rate for mothers based on the disingenuous reality that 72% of Black households in Milwaukee are headed by a never-married single female, nearly half of them are poor, uneducated, and lack familial support.

I figure nearly one-fourth are either complacent or complicit in the criminal activities of their wayward children.

While we are in denial, there is a template: children raising children; misplaced priorities; no cultural or spiritual foundation to stand upon.

These 'parents' know their 13-year-old couldn't afford the 65-inch flat-screen tv he bought home. Nor does he have a driver's license and thus should not be driving that new Kia parked in the alley.

Many of these parents ignore the smell of 'weed' on their children's clothes (because they can't distinguish it from their own) and are not alarmed or concerned when the 15-year-old girl stays out all night.

Y'all know parents who turn their backs, ignore the obvious or blame the system, Presidents Jefferson Davis or Donald Trump.

Undereducated and without paternal guidance, the probability that the Neckbones-in-training will drop out of school because they can't read the ninth-grade exam, or join a gang as a surrogate father, is all but guaranteed.

Obviously, I wouldn't put all of the onus on the sisters.

In fact, while they could be charged as accessories after the fact, the Neckbone/sperm donor/manchild who 'hit it and quit it' and went on to the next naive girl should be charged as an accessory before the fact!

Everything the child does is a byproduct of the absentee sperm donor. He should be put in the same cell as the teen terrorist. If nothing else, he'll get to know him. Or better yet, he'll be off the street and won't be able to impregnate some other Neckbone covered in hot sauce.

Maybe we should also widen our net and include the educracy and Negrocracy in the equation.

While the educracy, teacher's union, and even the Negrocracy continue to sweep it under the rug, there is a direct link between educational apartheid and crime. There's a reason why schools are considered the main pipeline to prison.

Ok, I'm being facetious again, and this idea has little chance of realization. But that loud thunderous sound you keep hearing isn't from a lightning storm, but instead the collective cries of citizens of various hues who are clamoring for solutions. And the echo is tribal members hoping to save our community before it dissolves into a dysfunctional mass of pork 'do-do.'

And even if the Negrocracy, politicians, and educracy sweep it under the rug, the smell will eventually seep through the carpet or the cold hard ground of the prison floor.

One of my nieces was car-jacked in broad daylight at a gas station on Teutonia and Hampton a while back. It happened on the one day of the year when she wasn't carrying her gun and let her guard down, assuming she was in a 'good' neighborhood.

I'm sure if she had an opportunity, she would have 'pimped slapped' the teen terrorist (or worst) and confronted his parents during his trial--or funeral.

That's far from the ideal solution, but if this pandemic continues to escalate, it may be the only option that could stem the tide, other than making parents more accountable for their children.

COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT CORPORATION

NORTHWEST SIDE CDC CLOSES LOAN TO CARE MANAGEMENT PLUS

The Northwest Side CDC is proud to announce the closing of a loan to bring a brand new supportive housing development to the Northwest Side of Milwaukee. Care Management Plus, operated by owner Jamie Gray, has been providing supported living and long-term care management services since 1999.

With funding from NWSCDC and MEDC, they will be expanding to a brand new 28 bed building at 8534 W Mill Road. Residents of this development will live independently but have access to supportive services to help them navigate life challenges presented by things such as advanced age, cognitive variance, trauma, etc. This development will also bring dozens of new, high-paying, care economy jobs to the neighborhood.

Ms. Gray is a lifelong resident of the Northwest Side of Milwaukee, growing up just minutes away from the site that she has now purchased. In fact, her mother's first nursing job was at the assisted living facility that previously occupied the building. One evening in 2019,

Ms. Gray was driving home from dinner and saw a "for sale" sign on the property. At this time, she and her business partner, Anthony Kazee of KG Development Group LLC, were considering expanding their business' footprint with a new building and the personal ties to this particular site made it clear that this was the right location. She describes it as the building choosing her, not the other way around.

"You can move a thousand miles away, and the thing that inspires you is often found in your proverbial backyard", said Ms. (continued on page 7)

Sailor wishes their family in Milwaukee a happy holiday

By Rick Burke, Navy Office of Community Outreach
MILLINGTON, Tenn. – Sailors help maintain America's advantage at sea. This means they do not always get to celebrate holidays with their loved ones.
A Milwaukee, Wisconsin, native serving in the United States Navy will celebrate the holidays deployed with their fellow sailors aboard USS Essex.

"The holidays to me, is about relaxing and spending time with my family," said Petty Officer 1st Class Brandee Lindsay-Williams.
