COMMENTARY: Racist 'Replacement' Rhetoric is Deadly and Republicans Must Stop Using It

By Ben Jealous

The young man who murdered 10 people in Buffalo, New York on May 14, was out to kill Black people. He chose a grocery store because he wanted to leave the local Black community in fear of going about their daily lives.

These evil actions were motivated by a racist ideology known as the Great Replacement Theory. That should cause some serious reflection among Republicans who are trying to build power with their own versions of racist "replacement" rhetoric.

Replacement rhetoric is meant to tap into a very old fear: that the survival and dominance of white Americans is threatened by others — whether by the freedom and empowerment of Black people or immigration by people of color.

BYE BYE, BIRDIES:

We Energies peregrine falcon chicks take their first flights

Two of the peregrine falcon chicks born this spring at the Oak Creek Power Plant have flown the coop!

“Mario,” named in honor of the 1992 debut of Super Mario Kart, raced out of the nest first. Next to leave was “Whitney,” named in honor of Whitney Houston’s “I Will Always Love You,” the bestselling song of 1992.

Siblings “Mae” and “Favre,” named in honor of astronaut Mae Jemison and Packers quarterback Brett Favre, will likely spread their wings any day now.

All of the falcon chicks were given 1992-themed names in honor of the 30th anniversary of We Energies’ peregrine falcon program.

The fledglings will spend the next few weeks learning how to hunt prey and mastering their flying skills. After that, they’ll head off in separate directions to start their own lives.

There’s still plenty of action on our live nest box cameras. The chicks born at the Port Washington Generating Station and Milwaukee’s Valley Power Plant are younger and will likely stick around for at least another week or two. The chicks at Weston Power Plant just started to hatch last week.

This year’s class of chicks brings the total number of peregrines hatched, named and banded at We Energies and Wisconsin Public Service (WPS) power plants to 433 since our recovery efforts began.

“All of the falcon chicks were given 1992-themed names in honor of the 30th anniversary of We Energies’ peregrine falcon program.”

“WHAT HAVE YOU GOT IN THIS PAPER?!”

—Proprietor of a store in the community comments on how FAST the Community Journal MOVES!(is picked up by readers like YOU!)

Our newspaper moves fast once it’s on the newsstands competing for the attention of our community with other publications. But we succeed in ‘moving’ because of what we have “in this paper.” We have the news, information, and pictorial highlights that will inform you, inspire you, enlighten you, and prod you to action and discussion. The secret to our success? There isn’t one. All we’ve done for almost 50 years is live up to the Black Press’ credo to hate no one, (and) fear no one. We, like our peers in the Black Press, strive to help everyone—regardless of race and creed—in the firm believe that all are hurt as long as anyone is held back.
