FIRST NIGHT OF KWANZAA CELEBRATED AT THE WISCONSIN BLACK HISTORICAL SOCIETY MUSEUM!

On Monday December 26, the Wisconsin Black Historical Society Museum Celebrated the first of seven Kwanzaa celebration. The program focused on the first of the seven principles (or Nguzo Saba): 'Umoja,' which means 'Unity,' or 'building a community that holds together.' The Director Clayborn Benson and his daughter, Jamila (inset photo above), again put the program together. There was African drumming and dancing and poetry by Muhibb Dyer and Kwabena Nixon. Everyone had a great time and the children enjoyed the dancing.—Photos by Kim A. Robinson

AAA Activates 'Tow to Go' for New Year's Eve

MADISON—AAA - The Auto Club Group will be working to keep impaired drivers off the road during the year-end holidays.

The Auto Club Group is activating its Tow to Go program, which provides transportation for the would-be impaired driver and their vehicle.

Tow to Go is active from 6pm Friday, December 23rd - 6am Monday, January 2nd

It's available in select states/locations (see below) Should be treated as a last resort

AAA has offered Tow to Go during major holidays for nearly 25 years. During that time, AAA has removed more than 25,000 impaired drivers from the road.

How does it work? When someone calls Two to Go, AAA dispatches a tow truck to transport the would-be impaired driver and their vehicle to a safe location within a 10-mile radius. The service is free for anyone, yet AAA asks that it be treated as a last resort.

Crash data from NHTSA proves that combining cocktails with crowded roads can be deadly. From Christmas to New Year's in 2020, there were 209 drunk-driving related fatalities nationwide. (NHTSA).

"Tis the season for gathering with friends and family and AAA is proud to offer this service to help everyone make it home for the holidays safely," said Nick Jarmusz, director of public affairs, AAA - The Auto Club Group. "The greatest gift you can give this holiday season is your presence, so be sure to plan for a safe ride home before the celebrations begin. Alcohol, drugs and even prescription medications can affect your ability to drive and cause unnecessary risks for everyone on the roadway. If you're tempted to drive impaired, call AAA instead and we'll transport you and your vehicle to a safe location."

Free and available to AAA members and non-members.

Confidential local ride for one person and their vehicle to a safe location within a 10-mile radius.

Appointments cannot be scheduled in advance to use Tow to Go. It is designed as a safety net for those that did not plan ahead. Always choose a designated driver before celebrating.

In some situations, AAA may need to make other arrangements to get an impaired individual a safe ride home.

Tow to Go may not be available in rural areas or during severe weather conditions.

Ring In The New Year With Financial Wellness

Improving your financial wellness can be less stressful and achievable with First Tech’s planning resources and trusted financial advisors available to help.

(NAPSI)—If you’re like many people, you make New Year’s resolutions. Whether you love or hate the tradition, studies show that one of the most popular resolutions is healthier living—followed closely by setting financial goals.

These two resolutions are also interdependent, as 72% of people report experiencing money-related stress at least some of the time. That means financial wellness is proving to be more vital to overall health and happiness than ever.

It’s also a fact that only a small percentage of people who make resolutions actually keep them.

Luckily, Chylon Pappas, vice president of marketing at First Tech Federal Credit Union, has tips and savings tricks to get you started on the path to improving your overall financial health in 2023 and beyond.

1.Make a Plan: Mapping out your financial goals is the first step. This will serve as a guide you can reference and fine-tune.

Investing, saving for retirement, and reviewing spending habits regularly can seem daunting, but there are a few ways to make the process less overwhelming:

- Conduct research and educate yourself to make more informed decisions
- When it comes to investing, start small
- Exhaust all available employer options, such as an employer-sponsored retirement plan, Flexible Spending Account (FSA), Health Savings Account (HSA), etc.

“Financial priorities tend to shift and change in different life stages—whether it’s sending your child to school or planning your retirement. The key is setting long-term goals and not letting yourself get discouraged by short-term changes along the way,” explains Pappas.

To help you get started and take the mystique (and intimidation) out of financial planning, First Tech offers a primer. 2.Become a SMART Shopper: Another tip for reducing spending is to stick to a budget.

Pappas recommends setting specific, measurable, achievable, relevant, and time-bound (SMART) goals—which leads to better budgeting and allows you to adjust it as needed.

For example, eating at home and being mindful of “entertainment” expenses, such as dining out or tickets to sporting events, can help eliminate unnecessary spending. Being a savvy shopper also makes all the difference. This means planning, writing down, and avoiding tempting impulse in-store or online purchases.

For more inspiration, you can check out First Tech’s budget-friendly meal ideas for under $10 . It’s incredible how quickly grocery savings can build over time.

Whether it’s spending less on groceries, entertainment, or cutting costs associated with other household needs, the key to success is holding yourself accountable to your specific goal. One way to do this is to work with a friend or family member, so they can help keep you focused and on track to turn your goals into reality.

3.Flex Your Savings Muscles: Planning and budgeting may automatically strengthen savings, but you don’t have to cut off all your spending to save. There are ways you can boost savings, and still have room to “treat yourself,” all while keeping a cushion for those rainy days. Pappas suggests:

- Gradually increasing your savings by 1 percent each year
- Following the 50/30/20 rule by allocating 50 percent of your monthly income towards bills and non-negotiables, and 30 percent towards savings, leaving 20 percent to fulfill wants
- Utilizing multiple savings accounts to support specific needs using the 50/30/20 rule
- Using a credit card that deposits cash back

Another option is a share certificate —a long-term solution that enables you to steadily increase savings over time, offering a higher yield than alternative savings accounts.

Becoming a (Financially) Healthier You: Many people are reluctant to talk about money, but real change only happens when you take a close look and rethink your current habits.

Get a running start by making a plan, and you may soon be well on your way to improving your financial wellness and reaping the rewards of your efforts.
