Diane Beckley Milner Surprise 70th Birthday Party at the Wisconsin Club

The Mitchell Room at the Wisconsin Club, located at 900 West Wisconsin Avenue, was abuzz recently as about 100 of Diane's closest friends and colleagues gathered to celebrate her milestone 70th birthday.

A surprise event commissioned and coordinated by her husband, Jim Milner, implemented by Una VanDuvall with Jim standing proudly by Diane's side throughout the evening sharing in the joy of this remarkable moment.

Together the attendees embraced this pink, green and gold theme "Engaging Communities," special moments were captured by the professional photography team lead by Yvonne Kemp.

Guests were entertained by Doc B., DJ and talk show host for 101.7 The Truth and treated to live performances by the band Mahogany Soul.

Attendees tested their luck in a series of games and prize drawings before enjoying a curated selection of culinary offerings and refreshments from the bar.

Reflecting Diane's deep ties to the city of Milwaukee, the guest list included representatives from Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Inc., leaders of Milwaukee Community Based Organizations, staff members of the Alzheimer's Association, and committee members of the newly formed Health Equity Coalition.

The evening was made special with an opening prayer by Rev. Dr. Joy L. Gallmon, Sr. Pastor, St. Mark AME Church. In addition, friends and clergy from Diane's home church, St. Matthew CME, as a collective lent their support to the celebration.

Diane's family: her four sons, four of her thirteen grandchildren, two brothers, one sister and their spouses, filled the room with warmth and gratitude, honoring her seven decades of love, leadership, and community spirit.

"Reflecting Diane's deep ties to the city of Milwaukee, the guest list included representatives from Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Inc., leaders of Milwaukee Community Based Organizations, staff members of the Alzheimer's Association, and committee members of the newly formed Health Equity Coalition."

FELLOWSHIP OPEN SILVER ANNIVERSARY CELEBRATES AT NFL DRAFT IN GREEN BAY

NFL Executive Vice President UW Legend and NCAA Hall of Famer Troy Vincent Saluted for Corporate Excellence and Community Stewardship

GREEN BAY – The Fellowship Open, celebrating 25 years of community engagement and youth empowerment, traveled to the NFL Draft in Green Bay to salute a legendary Wisconsin Hall of Famer and one of the nation's leading corporate executives, NFL Executive Vice President of Football Operations Troy Vincent.

The ceremony was held at Associated Banc-Corp Headquarters in downtown Green Bay. The MKE Fellows joined in the celebration bringing 50 young people to the festivities to witness Mr. Vincent's induction as the 2025 Fellowship Open Silver Anniversary Legends Honoree. Students from the BD-Slam School (Holy Redeemer), Milwaukee Academy of Science, and the Kappa Leadership Development League attended the event and were joined by Pro Football Hall of Famer LeRoy Butler, Green Bay Packers Executive Committee Member Michael Barber, and TiletownTech Director Cordero Barkley. For many students, it was their first time traveling to historic Lambeau Field.

Troy Darnell Vincent, Sr. was a phenomenal athlete at UW-Madison from 1988-1991 where he earned All-Big Ten First-team honors and later was drafted by the Miami Dolphins.

He played for four NFL teams including the Philadelphia Eagles, Buffalo Bills, and Washington Redskins and was inducted into the NCAA Hall of Fame in 2023.

This year, Sport for Impact named Vincent to its inaugural Walter Payton Man of the Year Ring of Honor, one of the NFL's most esteemed and respected salutes to leadership excellence and exceptional community service.

"It's humbling to be recognized among so many iconic figures who have committed their lives to serving others and empowering our next generation of leaders," said Vincent. "The Fellowship Open is an inspiring example of how the Wisconsin community builds bridges to the future for Milwaukee's youth through education, mentorship, and personal development." Pro Football Hall of Famer, Green Bay Packers Super Bowl Champion, and 2022 Fellowship Open Legends Honoree LeRoy Butler was on hand to officially

STAR MILWAUKEE RADIO HOSTS JOIN CAMPAIGN TO REDUCE BLACK OVERDOSE DEATHS WITH LIFE-SAVING NALOXONE

Radio Celebrities Send Powerful Messages for 'You Have the Power to Save Lives' Campaign

Two of Milwaukee's popular radio hosts, Don Black, midday host and Program Director of Milwaukee Radio Group's Jammin' 98.3 WJMR, and Trey White, afternoon drive host of iHeartMedia's V100.7 FM, are lending their voices and energy to the You Have the Power to Save Lives campaign.

communities to expand the availability and utilization of naloxone, a lifesaving, overdose-reversing nasal spray medication. At the heart of the campaign is a new website – YouCanSaveLives.org – where people can find out where to obtain naloxone near them, hear powerful, real-world testimonials, and take action to spread the word about the importance of naloxone.

"I am an example of the human suffering created by the overdose crisis," said Anita Garrett, a Milwaukee advocate who lost a son and nephew to drug overdose.

"In both cases, knowledge about naloxone should have saved them, and they would be here today. We need our community to learn how to stop these needless deaths. We need people to know about naloxone and that it can save lives.

"I can't stop people from using drugs, but I can help educate my community about how to save lives. That's why I am engaged with the You Have the Power to Save Lives Campaign.

"I urge you to do the same as we protect our family, friends, and neighbors. They might not make the best choices, but we can help them stay alive."

Supported by public health organization Vital Strategies, the campaign includes more than a dozen community groups, health organizations, and local government agencies. Their efforts focus on establishing new naloxone distribution points in Black communities—including neighborhood gathering spaces and local health providers—to reduce stigma around carrying naloxone and empower individuals to save lives in the event of an overdose.

The campaign also released a report consolidating recent evidence that illustrates the need for urgent action to save lives, finding:

- Despite an overall decline in overdose deaths in Milwaukee County in 2024, the overdose death rate for Black Milwaukee residents remained twice as high as the rate for whites in the city.

- In 2024, Black Milwaukee residents accounted for 42% of all overdose deaths in the county, despite accounting for 27% of the county's population.

- Overdose deaths in the City of Milwaukee are concentrated in the predominantly Black neighborhoods of the Northside.

- Overdose is the leading cause of injury death for Black adults in the United States, surpassing gun violence and car crashes.

In many cities, older Black men are four times more likely to die of overdose than other men in their age group.

The rising death toll has alarmed the radio hosts, driving them to participate in the campaign and use their platform to influence the community.

Daliah Heller, Vice President for Overdose Prevention Initiatives at Vital Strategies, thanked the radio hosts for participating in the campaign, saying, "They have powerful voices that can help the campaign save lives in Milwaukee. We are grateful their participation."

Milwaukee's Trey White

Further, Heller said, "We are cautiously optimistic about declining overdose death rates nationally, but after years of skyrocketing rates, the wide disparities experienced by Black communities are raising the alarm. Rates are higher among Black adults than their white counterparts; we urgently need equitable and focused strategies.

This campaign is making lifesaving naloxone more widely available in Black communities in Milwaukee and six other cities, and mobilizing Black people to carry it to protect friends, family, and community."

As overdose has risen to become the leading preventable cause of death among Black adults in the US, the collaboration of local and national leaders seeks to promote public uptake of the overdose-reversing medicine, naloxone, in the community and raise awareness of its benefits.

The hosts recently hit the radio airwaves with strong messages advocating for the Black community to get free naloxone, also known by its brand name Narcan, that is available in their neighborhoods, and keep it on hand to save lives.

Having lost friends and relatives to drug overdose, the hosts' narratives are authentic and powerful. Their messages resonate. To listen, go to our website's newsroom and click audio.

The "You Have the Power to Save Lives" campaign was launched last month in Milwaukee and six other cities: Albuquerque, New Mexico; Philadelphia, Pennsylvania; Louisville, Kentucky; Durham, North Carolina; Detroit, Michigan; and Newark, New Jersey.

The campaign, with its strong focus on community engagement, focuses on activating community leaders in Black welcome Mr. Vincent aboard. "It's amazing to see what we can do as a community when resources, mentoring, and commitment to the basic principles of generating opportunity for all come together in the spirit of cooperation," remarked Butler. "As a former Legends Honoree, I am thrilled to join in saluting a great athlete and an even greater leader."

"The standard of excellence and exemplary leadership by example is set no higher than Troy Vincent," noted Fellowship Open President John W. Daniels III. "Troy's rise from the gridiron to the boardroom and a position as one of the NFL's topmost corporate executives speaks to his commitment and acumen in developing partnerships and engaging franchises, sports organizations, and professional athletes who are determined to assist in the preparation of Wisconsin's next corps of civic and community leaders. We applaud his work and welcome him as our Silver Anniversary Legends Honoree."

The MKE Fellows, one of the Fellowship Open's topmost initiatives, was named an NBA Foundation awardee - a major endowment providing essential support for the nationally-acclaimed program.

For 25 consecutive years, the Fellowship Open has acknowledged special individuals who have had measurable impact in improving the quality of life for people across America with specific focus on leaders and role models who have created significant opportunities for youth. Former recipients include Hall of Famers Henry Aaron, Oscar Robertson, Frank Robinson, Willie Davis, Jerome Bettis, and LeRoy Butler, Olympians Tommy Smith, Dr. John Carlos, and Jackie Joyner-Kersey, corporate and community leaders Junior Bridgeman, Commissioner Bud Selig, Dan Bader, Cecelia Gore, Thelma Sias, and many others.

The 25th annual Fellowship Open golf tournament event is scheduled for Friday, August 22, at Kettle Hills Golf Course in Richfield, WI. For more information visit www.fellowshipopen.org.
