The Center before renovation

Distinguished alumnus, athlete, and businessman, Dr. Dorian Boyland has popular UW-Oshkosh building named after him

Dorian Boyland, a former baseball player at the University of Wisconsin-Oshkosh, is the namesake of the Dr. Boyland University Hall on campus. The building, formerly known as the Multicultural Education Center (MEC), was renamed in Boyland's honor.

A renaming ceremony was held recently at the renamed edifice. He was a significant figure on the school's baseball program, playing both outfield and pitching, and later played in the major leagues.

Boyland played on the UW-O Baseball Team from 1973 to 1976; Conference Champions, Area Champions, College World Series, All American, All Area, All District, All Conference, and All Century Team (Wisconsin).

He is a member of the Alpha Phi Alpha fraternity (Eta Pi) chapter; 2nd Round Draft Pick (Pittsburgh Pirates), Athletic Hall of Fame, Alumni of the Year, CEO/President Boyland Auto Group, NAMAD Lifetime Achievement Award, President's Lifetime Achievement Award (Joe Biden).

The historic building, a haven for bringing people together to promote and celebrate belonging on campus since the early 1970s. During this time at UW-Oshkosh, the center served as crucial space for community, support, and friendship, significantly impacting his journey and success.

Students from the 60's to current students attended the celebration. The following evening, the students sponsored a dinner and panel discussion with Dr. Boyland to reminisce about all that occurred while attending UW-Oshkosh. The dinner was held at Potawatomi Hotel-Casino's 'Serenity Room' in Milwaukee.

Trump Orders Undercut Black Business Gains

By Stacy M. Brown
Black Press USA Senior National Correspondent

Black-owned businesses have experienced historic growth in recent years, but that progress is now under threat.

A sharp decline in small business optimism, coupled with sweeping anti-DEI executive orders from the Trump administration, is creating new hurdles—particularly for African American entrepreneurs who remain vastly underrepresented in the U.S. economy.

According to Pew Research Center, the number of U.S. firms with majority Black ownership surged from 124,004 in 2017 to 194,585 in 2022. Revenues also soared by 66%, reaching $211.8 billion.

Yet Black-owned businesses still accounted for just 3% of all classifiable firms and only

1% of gross revenues that year, despite Black Americans making up 14% of the population.

More than one in five Black adults say owning a business is essential to their definition of financial success, and most of those who own businesses depend on them as their primary income source.

The vast majority—71%—have fewer than 10 employees, and they are disproportionately concentrated in sectors like health care and social assistance (26%), professional and technical services (14%), and transportation (9%).

However, as the Pew report shows gains, the National Federation of Independent Business (NFIB) paints a far more troubling picture of the broader small business climate.

The NFIB Small Business Optimism Index dropped to 95.8 in April, marking the second month in a row below its 51-year average.

Small business owners reported declining expectations for real sales, fewer capital investment plans, and significant difficulties finding qualified labor.

Only 18% of owners said they plan to make capital outlays in the next six months—down from previous months and the lowest level since April 2020.

The policy environment compounds the problem for Black-owned firms. In January, President Trump signed executive orders EO 14151 and EO 14173, effectively dismantling many federal Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion (DEI) initiatives.

These orders direct agency heads to align all federal programs—including contracts and grants—with so-called “merit-based opportunity,” opening the door to deprioritizing race-conscious support programs.

While the administration cannot eliminate statutory set-aside programs like the SBA’s 8(a) Small Disadvantaged Business designation without congressional approval, it is already moving to gut enforcement and reducing goals.

SBA Administrator Kelly Loeffler issued a memo in February announcing her intent to reduce the 8(a) contracting goal from 15% to the statutory minimum of 5%, citing alleged disadvantages to veteran-owned businesses.

The administration is also expected to cease auditing compliance with subcontracting goals for minority-owned (continued on page 3)

GOP Medicaid Plans Would Slash Health Coverage for Millions, CBO Confirms

By Stacy M. Brown
Black Press USA Senior National Correspondent

A newly released analysis by the nonpartisan Congressional Budget Office (CBO) has confirmed that proposals pushed by Republicans in Congress to slash Medicaid spending would result in millions of Americans losing health coverage.

The analysis arrives just days before the House Energy and Commerce Committee is expected to vote on several of these drastic policy changes. The CBO report, addressed to Senate Finance Ranking Member Ron Wyden and House Energy and Commerce Ranking Member Frank Pallone Jr., outlines five Republican-backed Medicaid policy options that would significantly reduce federal spending.

The agency estimates that under the proposed changes, as many as 8.6 million people could lose Medicaid coverage, and up to 3.9 million would become uninsured.

“This CBO report further confirms what we already knew – that Republicans in Congress are willing to sell out millions of working families to give their billionaire friends another massive tax break,” said Kobie Christian, spokesperson for Unrig Our Economy.

“Republicans in Congress have been gaslighting the American public by claiming to be against Medicaid cuts, while actively trying to take away health care from millions of working-class Americans.”

The proposals outlined in the CBO’s letter are capping federal contributions to Medicaid, reducing the matching rate for states that expanded Medicaid under the Affordable Care Act, and repealing enrollment rules designed to streamline access to Medicaid and CHIP.

Each of the first four policy options would force states to firms, which could severely impact opportunities for small and large companies that depend on federal contracts.

These moves are especially worrisome for Black business owners, who are already navigating disproportionate barriers to access to capital and markets.

While White-owned businesses make up 84% of all classifiable firms and account for 92% of total revenue, Black-owned businesses remain a small sliver despite their rapid growth.

With small business optimism waning and federal support shifting away from equity initiatives, many Black entrepreneurs now face a chilling reality: a promising rise in business creation and growth may be undermined by policy changes designed to erase the very programs that helped level the playing field.

“Uncertainty continues to be a major impediment for small business owners,” NFIB Chief Economist Bill Dunkelberg said, noting that labor shortages, declining sales expectations, and inflation remain pressing concerns.

Black America celebrates African Descent Heritage of Pope Leo XIV

By Stacy M. Brown
Black Press USA Senior National Correspondent

Black America is taking pride in a truth shaking up the Vatican and resonating through the streets of New Orleans: Pope Leo XIV—formerly Cardinal Robert Prevost of Chicago—has Black and Creole roots. The Pope's factual anthropological roots are not just symbolic. According to genealogist Jari Honora, his maternal lineage traces directly to the Black community of New Orleans' 7th Ward, with family ties to Haiti, and census records identifying his ancestors as "Black" or "Mulatto."

"By the Europeans' own '1/8th' rules, we have a Black Pope," noted author Elie Mystal declared. "Anyway, Pope's grandfather is Haitian. We kind of got a Black Pope. 'End respond by cutting provider payments, reducing benefits, and slashing enrollment.

The fifth option alone—repealing the Eligibility and Enrollment final rule—would eliminate coverage for 2.3 million people, most of whom are low-income seniors and people with disabilities.

"Donald Trump and Rubber Stamp Republicans in Congress are lying to the American people about their plans to enact the largest cut to Medicaid in our nation's history," warned Democratic Leader Hakeem Jeffries.

The CBO analysis confirms House Democrats' warnings that the GOP proposals would force states to raise taxes, cut education spending, or push people off health insurance," Jeffries said.

"Rather than working to improve the Medicaid program, congressional Republicans are continuing a 15-year-old fight to repeal the Affordable Care Act," noted Andrea Ducas, vice president of Health Policy at the Center for American Progress.

"This new CBO report confirms that each of congressional Republicans' latest proposals would kick millions of the most vulnerable Americans off their health care, all to pay for tax giveaways for the president's billionaire donors."

The report also arrives as Senate Republicans voted 53-47 to confirm Frank Bisignano—former Wall Street executive and self-described "DOGE person"—as the new head of the Social Security Administration, drawing harsh criticism from Democrats and advocates.

During his confirmation hearing, Bisignano dodged questions from Senators Bernie Sanders and Ron Wyden about the agency's cuts and the use of cryptocurrency-related tools in sensitive federal databases. In recent months, under the Trump administration, the SSA has shuttered field offices, laid off 7,000 employees, and made it harder for Americans—especially seniors and rural residents—to access benefits. Reports from outlets including Axios, NPR, and the Washington Post highlight the collapse of customer service at the SSA, long wait times, and the inability of many Americans to apply for benefits online or by phone.

"Republicans just handed over the future of Americans' Social Security to Frank Bisignano, a Wall Street stooge," said Ken Martin, Chair of the Democratic National Committee. "Just like Trump and Musk, Bisignano will gladly put Social Security on the chopping block to line the pockets of billionaires and special interests."

Democrats argue the Republican strategy—cutting Medicaid and destabilizing Social Security—amounts to an all-out war on working-class Americans. The CBO report estimates the GOP's Medicaid policy shifts would reduce the federal deficit by as much as $710 billion over the next decade, but at a devastating cost: loss of care, rising out-of-pocket expenses, and widening inequities in health access. "Crafting health care policy is not an academic exercise; for tens of thousands of Americans, it's a matter of life or death," Ducas noted.

Woke' is not gonna be happy about this." Further, New Orleans historian Jari Christopher Honora also speaking to the National Catholic Reporter and Black Catholic Messenger, detailed how the pope's grandparents married in 1887 at Our Lady of the Sacred Heart Church on Annette Street in New Orleans before migrating north. His mother, Mildred Martínez, was the first child in the family born in Chicago. "The Holy Father's ancestors are identified as either Black or Mulatto," Honora said.

The Chicago Tribune and New York Times also reported on Pope Leo's mixed-race background and Creole lineage, noting that his election marks a defining moment in the Church's evolving identity.

"As a Black man, a proud son of New Orleans, and the U.S. Congressman representing the very 7th Ward neighborhood where our new Pope's family hails from, I am bursting with pride today," said Rep. Troy Carter.

"This is history! The first American Pope, with Creole and Haitian roots, rising from the streets of New Orleans to the Vatican.

"As a Xavier University alum, I know how deeply faith and resilience run in our community. We celebrate this moment—with joy, with prayers, and with pride."

Former New Orleans Mayor Marc Morial called Leo XIV's background

"universal," saying, "Here's an American whose ministry was in Peru, who has roots in the American South and also ancestry in the American Black community." Leo XIV is a member of the Augustinian Order, named after the African theologian St. Augustine of Hippo. His election came from a conclave in which two other leading contenders—Cardinal Peter Turkson of Ghana and Cardinal Fridolin Ambongo Besungu of the Democratic Republic of Congo—were also men of African descent.

But Leo XIV stood apart—not just as the first pope from the U.S. but as one known for his outspokenness on racial justice, immigrant rights, gun reform, and the abolition of the death penalty.

TIME Magazine reported that his selection represented a Vatican rebuke of efforts by wealthy Americans and political operatives aligned with Donald Trump to influence the papal outcome. Known in Rome as "The Latin Yankee," Leo XIV used his verified X account (@drprevost) to amplify criticism of Trump-era immigration policies, often reposting commentary from respected Catholic figures. The New York Post reported that his last post before his election was a retweet of Catholic journalist Rocco Palmo slamming Trump's alliance with El Salvador's President Nayib Bukele over migrant deportations. Back in 2017, the Roman Catholic leader also reposted a message quoting Chicago Archbishop Blase Cupich, calling Trump's refugee bans "a dark hour of US history."

Though Trump offered lukewarm congratulations from the White House driveway, his far-right allies were quick to lash out. Laura Loomer tweeted, "WOKE MARXIST POPE," calling Pope Leo "just another Marxist puppet in the Vatican." But outside the MAGA echo chamber, in Black communities across the globe, the emotion is pride. "The pope is Black," journalist Clarence Hill Jr. said bluntly. And that means something in the Black neighborhoods of Chicago and the Creole corridors of New Orleans. Many said it means representation, resilience, and the reshaping of history at the highest level of the Catholic Church. "We celebrate this moment—not because it erases the struggles of our past, but because it affirms that our faith, our heritage, and our presence matter," Rep. Carter said. "This is history, and it belongs to all of us." The Reverend Dr. Benjamin F. Chavis, Jr. affirmed, "On behalf of the Black Press of America as the authentic voice of 50 million African Americans and millions more throughout the African diaspora, we join to celebrate Pope Leo XVI, a world leader of African descent who speaks truth to power with courage and grace."

AAA: Nearly 839,000 Wisconsinites will Travel Domestically for Memorial Day; 45.1 Million Travelers Nationwide

MADISON- AAA predicts nearly 839,000 Wisconsinites will travel at least 50 miles from home over the Memorial Day period*. That's an increase of almost 23,000 compared to last year.

The record high was in 2005 when more than 867,000 Wisconsinites traveled over the weekend.

Nationwide, AAA expects more than 45.1 million to travel for Memorial Day weekend.

That's 1.4 million more domestic travelers than last year. It's also a new Memorial Day weekend record, surpassing the previous record set back in 2005 with 44 million people.

"Despite economic uncertainty and global challenges, travel remains a priority for Americans, with millions eager to make memories with a Memorial Day getaway," said Debbie Haas, Vice President of Travel for AAA – The Auto Club Group.

"Whether travelers are looking for a quick getaway or an extended vacation, there are budget-friendly options for every plan.

"From a short beach retreat to an extended cruise, working with a travel advisor can help uncover exclusive discounts and create a vacation that best meets your interests and needs."

Memorial Day Travelers by Mode of Transportation

By Car: AAA projects 39.4 million people will travel by car over Memorial Day weekend. That's one million more travelers than last year. This year, 87% of Memorial Day travelers will take a road trip.

Fortunately, a trip to the gas pump should be lower than last year. On Memorial Day 2024, the national average for a gallon of regular was $3.59 per gallon.

In Wisconsin, it was $3.42/g. So far this spring, gas prices have avoided the usual seasonal spikes, largely due to lower crude oil costs.

"As summer unofficially begins and travel demand picks up, there's a chance that pump prices will edge upward," said Nick Jarmusz, director of public affairs for AAA – The Auto Club Group. "Historically, gas prices tend to peak in the spring or summer before gradually easing as schools reopen in the fall."

Rental Cars: For drivers who are renting cars over Memorial Day weekend, AAA car rental partner Hertz says Friday, May 23 is expected to be the busiest day for pickup. SUVs are some of the most popular rental vehicles for the long holiday weekend.

Hertz says the cities seeing the highest demand for rental cars include Orlando, Denver, San Francisco, Las Vegas, Miami, and Seattle – all cities in AAA's Top Destinations list.

By Air: Airports are bracing for another bustling holiday weekend. AAA projects 3.61 million air passengers, a nearly 2% increase over last year when 3.55 million travelers took to the skies.

While this Memorial Day weekend isn't expected to set an air travel record (that was set back in 2005 with 3.64 million travelers), this year's numbers are projected to surpass pre-pandemic levels by 12%.
